This premarital preparation course is in compliance with Florida Statute 741.0305 and is offered by Rebekah Prewitt, a Christian Counselor in the state of Florida. As such, the subject matter of this course is centered on Biblical principles. The course is a four hour audio course (mp3 format), and the topics covered include:

- The History of Marriage
- Importance of Getting Married Legally
- Biblical Eligibility for Marriage
- Timing of Marriage
- Disclosure
- Conflict Resolution
- Expectations in Marriages
- Leave and Cleave
- Financial Responsibilities
- Roles
- Parenting

Also included are two PDFs. The PDFs include six supplemental exercises and a quiz that must be taken either online or by email. Participants who successfully complete the quiz will be furnished a certificate indicating the completion of the course and will be eligible to have their marriage license fee reduced and also avoid the three day waiting period.

Pastors, counselors, parents, or any person looking to offer premarital counseling will find this course to be a useful tool in equipping couples who are in preparation for marriage. This product is only licensed for one couple; however, group license is available. Email rp@lakecitycounsel.com for group discounts.
